MONHEGAN ISLAND, MAINE

There is a world so isolated, so off the beaten track that it belongs to the very special personalities who are equipped to live within its narrow bounds. Nine miles or so off the coast of Maine there is such a place called Monhegan. This is a two track town for the main road is the sea that surrounds it. The island needs no roads for the only place to go is up from track of Mt. Washington leads crazily up that cliff to the little Coast Guard station on top where the surf boat was housed. To launch that boat from such a perch must have been a thrill. It is also testimony of the kind of seas into which it was launched. Some day when you are in Maine, the sea is calm and the sun shines and you want to get off this world, embark for Monhegan. You can go from New Harbor in a fishing boat or from Boothbay in a cruise boat or from various other ports along the Maine coast. This is a great trip for a day; most would go crazy in a week.

thriving attraction for summer visitors because its harbor is lined with huge hotels. There is one store, there is one lunch counter for the summer visitors but for the most part it is the natural beauty of the cliffs and walking trails that must provide the diversion and entertainment. At the very top of the cliff, the lighthouse made of solid Maine granite overlooks the cemetery, then down to the hotels and the homes to the harbor. Across the harbor, a trestle that resembles the cog railway

2nd Hepatitis Shots Necessary

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING NOVEMBER 26, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

A total of 36 town emergency personnel, 18 with the fire department and 18 in the police department, will have to be re-vaccinated to protect themselves against Hepatitis B and other vaccine-preventable diseases, Fire Department Medical Officer Evelyn Ellis informed selectmen last Tuesday.

Fire Chief Donald C. Wood said he can squeeze enough money from his budget to cover the 18 people under his department at a cost of $1,600. "This is an emergency and must be attended to right away", the chief said.

After listening to Officer Ellis, selectmen agreed the emergency situation definitely needs to be attended to and will find the money in the police department budget to cover its 18 people for another $1,600. Selectmen Paul E. Lambalot said "We can't expect people to go out unprotected."

The Federal Emergency Administration, U.S. Fire Administration (FEMA) in October notified Mattapoisett and Fairhaven that the emergency personnel was not properly vaccinated from 1989 and 1990 because the company supplying and administering the 1/10 the recommended intramuscular (IM)vaccine dose by the intradermal (ID) route which is not effective. Since November 1990 fire, emergency medical service, and pclice departments have reported to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services/Centers for Disease Control (CDC) at least four instances of poor immune response among public safety workers vaccinated against Hepatitis B by the ID route. Also, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has not licensed hepatitis B vaccine

From now through December, think of us as a food bank.

Answering the need with food for those in need.

It's been a good year for Plymouth Savings Bank and its customers. To show our appreciation to the community, we would like you to help us make the holiday season happier for everyone. Your contribution of non-perishable food items to those in need will help replenish local food banks.

Donations may be made at all offices of Plymouth Savings Bank. Needed are canned meats and tuna, peanut butter, jars of spaghetti sauce, canned fruits and vegetables, oatmeal, macaroni and cheese, rice, coffee and dry milk.

Look for the barrels in all of our branches through the end of December.

for ID administration.

Mrs. Ellis stressed that all firefighters, emergency medical technicians and paramedics should be immunized against these diseases. She explained, "In 1989 town meeting voters approved to pay to immunize all emergency personnel against hepatitis B. We started in December 1989 and completed the immunization this past summer. We were notified by the Fairhaven Visiting Nurse Association. The FDA concluded the company Am-Care Health, Inc. used a method that did not meet its approval. The shot should be given intra-muscular.

"The cost of the first shots Recombivax in 1989/1990 was $125. per person for 39 people. The cost came under the Board of Health budget. The company from Minnesota had a Minnesota doctor sign for the vaccination and he was not certified in Massachusetts. Each town signed its own contract. The new recommended dose costs $20. per dose, Engerix B and will be effective for seven years. If we go in with Fairhaven with the Bioran Lab, it will keep the cost down and move along faster", said Mrs. Ellis.

Chief Wood said, "We can't force people to take the shot. Most won't be happy to have it done again, and most won't like the way it is done. If we can start out at square one with all emergency personnel immunized, we won't have to have those particular people done for another seven years and new people can be done one at a time."

Mrs. Ellis explained the dangers of being exposed to Hepatitis B, saying Massachusetts is fourth in the country in the number of people contracting Hepatitis B. This strain is viable outside the body and emergency personnel are especially vulnerable because they come in direct contact with 34th Annual Good Neighbor Award, given to certain citizens throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts who meet certain criteria.

Good Neighbors have to be people who give of themselves and their time, without remuneration, to help improve understanding and relations between diverse groups; they have not received the recognition their accomplishments merit and are modest about their contributions to the community. Good Neighbors are very special people; although what they do may seem elementary to them, it is in fact a rare and valuable gift.

Messages of Thanks

Mr. Robert C. Gardner, ORR JHS Principal, and Mr. Jeffrey Rodman, Project Coordinator, would like to thank the 8th grade parents for their overwhelming support for the first Annual 8th Grade Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Buffet. The Junior High School cafetorium was filled to overflow. Eighth grade students were servers, waiters and waitresses. Junior High staff provided assistance in the kitchen. Entertainment was provided by the ORR Jazz Band, the Mariner Barbership Quartet and highlighted by the dance performance of Mrs. Evelyn Teixiera.

Music for dancing was provided by Dick Mello, ORR JHS teacher and local disc jockey.

HOLIDAY DRIVE

Manager June Anselmo and her staff at the Mattapoisett office of Citizens Bank of Massachusetts (formerly Fairhaven Savings Bank) would like to thank everyone who donated food for its Thanksgiving Drive.

Donations of all types of non-perishable food items are now being accepted for the Christmas Drive. All food collected will be distributed to local area needy families by the St. Vincent de Paul Society in time for the Christmas holiday.

EDUCATION FOCUS
LEAGUE HOLIDAY LUNCH

The role of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in secondary education, the importance of science education and the place of the state in higher education will all be considered at the annual Holiday Luncheon of the Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester League of Women Voters on Wednesday, December 11th.

Kay Reis, past member and chairman of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee and currently Education Specialist for the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts, will give an overview of the proposals for educational reform and change in Massachusetts which have been put forward from four different sources (Yes, Virginia, there are really four!), namely: Governor Weld, the Massachusetts Business Alliance for Education, the Joint Legislative Committee on Education and the special task force appointed by the State Board of Education.

Congregational Church

MATTAPOISETT

The call to repentance takes place in specific times in history. Some are disruptive and others quiet. At times we are eager to hear what we are being called to; then again we can be very detached, not sensing any urgency or the need for direction. The sermon will take this Advent theme (John's call for a baptism of repentance) and explore what is means in our time, focusing on the role of clear vision for both the lessons of history and the trends of our times. "Repentance and Reunion" will be the title of the sermon and we look forward to your joining us at 10:00 a.m. at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Immediately following our church service we will have a tree-trimming ceremony in Reynard Hall. Won't you please bring an ornament to help trim our tree?

Marion Council on Aging

On Sunday, November 24th, a Thanksgiving Dinner Buffet for senior citzens was sponsored by the eighth grade students, parents and teachers of Old Rochester Regional Junior High School. The idea was spearheaded by Jeff Rodman, and a most enthusiastic, committed group of junior citizens, who paid for this dinner out of their own student funds.

Well, to put it mildly, "We had a Ball!" The dinner was more than ample and truly a gourmet delight, and oh, the desserts. Added to this was the lively swing school band playing big band toe-tapping tunes in a most excellent professional way. Then the Harpoon Harmonizers highlighted the afternoon with some great old-fashioned tunes.

He did some science experiments. He had two chemicals. He mixed them together and they glowed. They have to be cold. The chemicals were sodium/hydroride/luminal solution and sodium hypochlorite solution. He said it was fun and he liked doing it. He did it because he wants to start a chemistry class. He did it to all the classes. He said if you don't know what you are doing you can get a rash and, if it gets into your eyes, you can hurt. He also did other experiments such as he made foam come out of a container and he made a water vapor cloud come out of a soda bottle.

you think the Christmas spirit might be a little harder to find this year? Think again. Downtown New Bedford has more ways than you can count to catch the Christmas spirit.

Some of them are free. Many of them are inexpensive and planned so that the whole family can have an affordable day of fun.

All of them are listed in the "Christmas in New Bedford" Events Brochure. Produced by Downtown New Bedford, Inc. and designed compliments of Moore and Isherwood, Inc., it is available at the Visitors' Center, in downtown stores, banks and restaurants.

This brochure is an indispensable day by day handbook of New Bedford holiday events from November 29 until December 31.

Are you an athlete? If so, maybe you want to take part in the First Night Road Race or the Quarters for Christmas fun run. They are listed in the brochure.

Do you like musical performances: If you do, the brochure offers many events to choose from.

Are you a book lover? Then, you will want to know about book signings listed in the brochure.

Mothers who don't want to hear , "But Mommy, I'm bored. There's nothing to do", will find it useful too.

For out of town guests there are maps.

There is even something for the yo-yo lovers.

So, pick up a "Christmas in New Bedford" Events Brochure and plan a merry season.

SHOW YOUR CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

What's red and green, longer than a dragon and lots of fun?

The Christmas Parade will be marching your way on Sunday, December 15th, at 3:30 p.m. along Main Street, Wareham. (Rain date is scheduled for December 22nd.)

The parade is being sponsored by the Wareham Recreation Department and we would like to invite you to join us on this Christmas march. Put on your Christmas costume and join Rudolf, Frosty, Big Bird and Mother Goose along with the Wareham School Band, fire engines, Christmas elves and more. All town organizations and clubs are invited to enter a float or just march along with the gang.

The parade will assemble on Warr Avenue at 3:00 p.m. and travel along Route 6 and up Chapel Hill. The parade will end at the Town Hall parking lot. The Town Hall cafeteria will be open so that residents may warm up and enjoy free Christmas cookies.

Infant Massage Workshops

The Children's Museum in Dartmouth is pleased to offer a one-day introductory workshop for infant massage on Saturday, December 7th. Babies from 3 weeks to crawling age and parents are invited to join Debra Joy Gottfried, certified infant massage therapist , to learn the art of nurturing touch. Ms. Gottfried, a muscle therapist at Gottwell Chiropractic, was inspired to become an infant massage therapist after reading Infant Massage: A Handbook for Loving Parents by Vimala Schneider. She has led many infant massage workshops in southeastern Massachusetts.

The art of massage is an ancient one. For centuries massage has been an important part of child-raising around the world. In this country massage therapy is undergoing a rise in popularity and credibility. Infant massage has been cited in medical studies to significantly enhance the growth and development of premature babies. Health care professionals praise infant massage for its wide range of physical, emotional, and pyschological benefits for all babies. Infant massage has been shown to help to strengthen and regulate the respiratory, circulatory, and gastrointestinal functions, often relieving the discomforts of colic and gas. The psychological benefits are also great. Infant massage benefits parents and babies helping them to relax together and provides a nurturing time for bonding.

Bristol Community College

COMPUTER OFFICE TRAINING FOR UNEMPLOYED - BCC PROGRAM

Bristol Community College offers a computer office training program designed to retrain and assist people who have lost their jobs and want to prepare for another type of career.

Based in the College's Workers' Assistance Center, the program provides instruction in keyboarding, filing, calculator operations, business communications, bookkeeping/accounting, data entry, office procedures and machine transcription, according to Nancy Rusnock, program director. "We also provide students with job search and development skills", said Ms. Rusnock. "At the conclusion of the program you can be prepared for an entry-level office position." Application for the program is going on now, she said.

In addition to the Computer Office Training program, the Workers' Assistance Center offers services to all dislocated workers in Bristol County, Ms. Rusnock added. "We provide a full range of re-employment services including training, resume workshops, interviewing skills, job search/support clubs and individual career counseling", she said. "If you have been laid off and need some help in your job search or are interested in a training program, contact the Workers' Assistance Center at BCC at 672-3500."

Tee and Ski

'TIS THE SEASON

If you believe that too much of a good thing is still not enough, then keep reading. Golf and Skiing are two sports which are growing in popularity and according to many golfers and skiers there are never enough greens to hit or mountains to conquer.

Understanding and sympathetic to the plight of these avid sports enthusiasts, the American Lung Association of Southeastern Massachusetts has an offer that is sure to satisfy. Available now, in time for holiday gift giving, is the 1992 Golf Privilege Card and the Ski Privilege Book.

Membership in the Golf Privilege Golf Card entitles you to one round of golf, free, at approximately 20 courses in southeastern Massachusetts and the Cape. Priced at only $40., the card is a value worth more than $300. The Ski Book offers free lift tickets and discounts at many popular ski resorts in New Hampshire, including Loon, Ragged Mountain, Balsam's/Wilderness, Pat's Peak and Mt. Cranmore, just to name a few. The cost of the Ski Card is $45.

Both "privilege programs" have restrictions regarding applicable days and times. But no matter how you "slice" it, the Golf and Ski cards can be your "lift tickets" to more of the sports activities you like best.

To order in time for the holidays call the American Lung Association of Southeastern Massachusetts at 947-7204; Master Card, Visa and American Express accepted.

Mensa Scholarships

The Annual American Mensa Scholarship contest has begun, with January 31, 1992 set as the deadline for essays to be submitted. Mensa, the international high IQ Club, will make awards ranging from $200 to $1,000 to winners in each of its nine regions in the U.S. The only requirement is that the applicant be enrolled in a degree program at an American institution of post-secondary education for the 1992-93 year.

Eligible applicants will also be considered for special national awards:

$500 Booras Award to an education major.

$600 Rita Levine Memorial Award to a woman returning to school after an absence of seven or more years.

$1,000 Turney Award to a student of engineering, mathematics, medicine or the physical sciences (Proof of Mensa eligibility is required).

$500 London Award to a graduate student in history.

$500 Harper Fowley Isolated M Award to an undergraduate in Liberal Arts.

intendent Joan M. Walsh of the Old Rochester Regional School District attended the 27th Annual Joint Conference of the Massachusetts Association of School Committees and the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents.

Superintendent Walsh reported that the November 6-9 conference in Hyannis was attended by over 1,000 school committee members, superintendents, and other education professionals. Panels covered a wide range of topics, including the recently enacted school choice legislation, funding and standards for special education, school/athletic partnerships, as well as equity and governance aspects of the Massachusetts Business Alliance for Education (MBAE) proposal.

Education Secretary Piedad Robertson was the keynote speaker on Wednesday evening, November 6th, and on Thursday, November 7th, Attorney General Scott Harshbarger addressed conference participants.

At the Thursday general session, Rosabeth Moss Kanter, a noted Harvard Business School professor and author, spoke on applying business strategies to school management.

Chapter 1 Meeting, Boston

Margaret DeMello attended the November meeting of the Chapter I Dissemination Project Board of Directors held in Boston.

Later discussion centered on several upcoming workshops sponsored by the Project. These include a math seminar in Springfield and an Early Childhood Conference. The great demand for a Multicultural Conference has been addressed with a full day session at Boston College on November 20th.

Attended Workshop

On Wednesday, November 13th Margaret DeMello and Carol Regan, Chapter I tutors, attended a workshop sponsored by the Chapter I Dissemination Project at the Henderson House in Weston, MA. The conference entitled "Home is Where One Starts From", began with a general session which dealt with metacognition which means thinking about thinking. This session explored that process using a proven thinking - strategies taxonomy and a number of activities and games that encourage metacognition in the home and the classroom.

There were two afternoon sessions, "Building Self-Esteem in Children" and "Math Games to Help the Child with Special Learning Needs".

In the workshop "Building Self-Esteem in Children" participants learned practical suggestions for building self-esteem in the home. They left with new insights and inspiration about themselves and their families.

The "Math Games to Help the child With Special Learning Needs" was a "hands on" workshop. Mathematic games designed to reinforce and maintain skills were introduced. Motivational, attentional learning style for using mathematics was discussed. The games introduced used everyday materials such as cards, dice, and egg cartons. Methods of adjusting the games to a variety of skills and skill levels were presented.

Mrs. DeMello and Mrs. Regan found this conference to be informative and stimulating, and will employ new skills learned there in the classroom.

Open House, YMCA

The YMCA of Greater New Bedford will be hosting an Open House on Sunday, December 8th, from 1 to 5 p.m.

The Open House will feature the Y's new strength-training cardiovascular center. This new 5,000 s.f. center includes a fully equipped free-weight room, 16 station Nautilus room and complete cardiovascular room with stairclimbers, lifecycles, and X-country ski trainers.

The Open House will also include: program demonstrations, family swim, building tours, refreshments, membership raffles and SANTA.

Drop by the YMCA at 25 South Water Street in New Bedford on Sunday, December 8th, for more information on the area's most complete family fitness and recreation center.

La Leche League

DISCUSSION AT UMASS DARTMOUTH

Professors of economics, English, and medical laboratory science at the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth will discuss new trends in educational computing at 3:30 p.m. December 5th in the William Q. MacLean, Jr. Campus Center (South Alcove) at UMass Dartmouth. The discussion is free and open to the public.

The topics for discussion and their presenters are:

William Hogan, professor of economics and interim director of computing services: "Supercomputers, Large Mainframes and Networking".

Peter Owens, professor of English and recipient of the 1991 Distinguished Software Award from EDUCOM: "Microcomputers and Multimedia Software Development".

Susan Leclair, associate professor of medical laboratory science and recipient of the 1991 Joe Wyatt Challenge Award from EDUCOM: "Case Study of a Campus Computer/ Multi-Media Project".

The program is sponsored by the College of Arts and Sciences.

Separated/Divorced Support

The New Bedford Separated & Divorced Support Group will meet on Wednesday, December 11th, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Diocesan Family Life Center, 500 Slocum Road, North Dartmouth. The topic will be a video by Leo Buscaglia entitled "Christmas Love".

PARENTS' NIGHT

Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School will be conducting a Parents' Night/Open House on Tuesday, December 10th, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Parents are invited to visit the school and see our vocational programs in operation, view student projects, and talk with teachers about their student's progress.

Parents of eighth grade students, contemplating a vocational education, are encouraged to attend. Guidance counselors will be available to describe vocational program opportunities, related academic courses, and potential career employment opportunities.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Guidance Office at Old Colony at 763-8011, Ext. 26.

FIRE DEPT. ACQUIRES NEW RESCUE VEHICLE

The Rochester Fire Department has acquired a new rescue vehicle thanks to the generosity of a town resident who donated the truck, the Fire Association of the Town of Rochester which funded the refurbishing project, and staff and students at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School who provided the technology.

The unit, a 24½ foot walk-in van, replaced an "aging and dilapidated" piece of equipment, according to Robert Francis, a Rochester EMT and carpentry instructor at Old Colony.

With its own generator and propane system, the unit is self-contained for emergency use.

"Basically, the unit carries equipment for rescue", Mr. Francis explained. "It can also be used as a staging or search headquarters or a mobile command unit."

Students from the carpentry, electrical and machine departments at Old Colony par-

BOSTON GLOBE SEMINAR

The Old Colony Spirit newspaper recently sent staff members to the Boston Globe's annual Journalism Institute Seminar for High School Editors. Three editors, seniors at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School in Rochester, were accompanied by their advisor, Michael McCormack. They heard presentations by Globe staff members. The open forum discussions covered Legal & Ethical Issues in the Media, Supervisory Editing, Copy Editing and Headline Writing.

Lively interchange between the Globe's speakers and the over sixty students and advisers provided the Spirit staff new insights on newspaper production.

STANG BRINGS THANKSGIVING TO THE COMMUNITY

Students, faculty and administration at Bishop Stang High School were busy the days before Thanksgiving preparing meals - and not their own. Led by the Student Council, the Stang community with the help of an "angel" who donates the turkeys, prepared a traditional Thanksgiving dinner for the Market Ministries in New Bedford.

The students gathered the "fixins" for the meal, while the faculty, staff, and administration cooked the turkeys. Wednesday morning the "chefs" brought the turkeys to school where the students de-boned and carved the birds. Mounds of potatoes were peeled and cooked, stuffing was prepared, vegetables were readied, the final preparations were made.

The dinner was transported via the school vans to Market Ministries of New Bedford ready to be served to the community on Thanksgiving Day. This annual tradition affords the Stang community an opportunity to say "thank you" for their many blessings.

Experience Culture of India

The Indian Students of UMass-Dartmouth and the Indian community in this area have planned a cultural program of music and dance, followed by a sampling of Indian snacks. The UM-D Library Associates and the general public are invited to this free program and snacks.

The program will be held Saturday, December 7th, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the Group VI (Visual Arts) building auditorium (Room 153). Use parking lots 8 and 9.

UMass Music Guild

The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth Music Guild announces two upcoming musical performances:

On Monday, December 9th, the UMass Dartmouth Stage Band will give a performance at 8 p.m. in Room 153 of the College of Visual and Performing Arts. Directed by Gene Crisafulli, the Stage Band will feature big band jazz music from the 40s as well as music from more contemporary composers. A student vocalist and several student instrumentalists will also perform solo selections.

On Thursday, December 12th, the Music Guild will present a student recital featuring vocal and instrumental performances and small ensembles. The recital will be held at 12:30 in Room 104 of the College of Visual and Performing Arts.

Both performances are free and open to the public.

Please park in Lot 8-9.

New Bedford Whaling Museum

ACQUIRED WATERCOLOR OF LAGODA

The New Bedford Whaling Museum has just acquired a watercolor of the whaling bark Lagoda. Arthur Moniz, a local artist, is the painter.

The Lagoda was whaling merchant Jonathan Bourne's most profitable ship. Originally built as a merchantman, she was acquired in 1841 by Bourne and converted to a whaler. For the next 40-plus years she made 12 voyages from New Bedford and earned her owners the then princely sum of nearly $652,000. In today's dollars this would be close to $9,000,000.

Sold in 1887, condemned as unfit in 1890, she spent the remaining 14 years of her life as a coal barge in Yokohama.

On November 24, 1916 Miss Emily Bourne, Jonathan's daughter, handed over to the Old Dartmouth Historical Society's Whaling Museum a new building containing the half-scale model of her father's favorite ship, the Lagoda.

In the intervening 75 years millions of people have walked her decks, gaining a better idea of what it must have been like to go whaling. The Lagoda is the world's largest half-scale model and is the focal point of the Whaling Museum's collections.

Arthur Moniz, the artist,is a resident of Fairhaven. Educated at the Massachusetts College of Art and the Museum School of Fine Arts in Boston, his paintings hang in collections throughout the United States and Japan.

The original watercolor is on display at the Museum. Reproductions, approximately 22 x 28 inches, suitable for framing, are available at the Museum Store, 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford. Store hours are 9 to 5 Monday through Saturday, and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.
